

On my way to 90 days

Day 0 of my journey to 90 days clean. I decided I'm going to update my status here so that the community can help encourage me and hold me accountable. I've been averaging a week clean, including some streaks that have extended beyond 2 weeks, but I think I can do better. Together we can all achieve more.

Welcome to the club, brother {only if you're not really Justin Bieber, if yes you're more like a in- }

BTW I think you should start the count from day 1 not zero,

Also I think that you won't do "better" you'll do the very best, you'll knock um out all the way for once and for all.

It's always good to keep up with the community here, you should definitely reach out to the biggest tzadikim here like Rabeinu HHM at michelgelner@gmail.com, eerie, muttel, iwlr etc.

Just keep up the greatest most exciting fight you'll win this one.
