

MAGA! Make Aynayim Great Again

Happy to share that I am on day 15 of my journey to 90 days! So far it's been pretty easy.

I confess that I am using artificial motivation as a rocket booster in my recovery. I made a deal that if I reach 90 days, I'll buy myself an expensive piece of fitness equipment (I'm a fitness buff). It's not really in my budget, but, what the heck, YOLO right?

Anyway, will post my origin story in the intro forum topic when I get the chance. It's pretty long so will need to come in installations.

Have a good shabbos y'all :-) cruising at the moment, access points are pretty darn well locked up.

I'm assuming a new nisayon will come my way soon though . It happens Every. Single. Time. just when I feel like I have a clear path to 90 and beyond, a new path to Porn opens up.

Kind of like trying to kill Freddy Krueger, Jason Vorhees, or Art the Clown. The ???? Just keeps coming back, ?????? ?????.

in the meantime, I'll enjoy the easy clean days and take the W

Hey time2win! Glad things are going smooth. This might be a good time to boost your defenses, be it with some of the content here or (highly recommended) reading The Battle of the Generation. As ol' Ben said, "By failing to prepare, you are preparing to fail"..

Meh. :-(

Was doing good with my streak, almost a month, but had a really frustrating day. I was expecting to get a promotion at work; since my interview went really well, but I wasn't selected in the end. Unlike in the Olympics, second place isn't worth a nickel. Was really ticked off at God/life/whatever and this was a big trigger. I held off for a few hours but eventually caved.

Feeling bummed out, don't want to head into a bad spiral...
