This will have everything in my other thread besides whatever is not appropriate for bachurim.

OK here goes first of all to see some of my struggles as a bachur see guardyoureyes.com/forum/4-On-the-Way-to-90-Days/378555-Here-we-go I had some streaks since then but didn't really keep track so I started a new profile. First issue is I need a way to filter my kyocera e4810 in a way that I cannot install apps. Does anyone know if egate works for this?
