Dear Guard: I have indeed been sending my progress e-mails to wallohonor@gmail.com.
Somehow, they are not getting through. So, instead, I will keep you posted from here.

If you keep wishing and never give up, then eventually you'll get there!

Thank you, Battleworn. Wish I could say I was on the highest level of Kedusha!

Thank you, R. Guard.

Boruch Hashem, I am up to 56 days (8 weeks).

I have modified this post by removing details of the "Nisayon" that I faced last night when I was half asleep. I put Nisayon in quotes, because I now realize that what happened to me last night was not, in fact, a Nisayon, because I was acting without Bechirah. The real Nisayon is the next day - i.e. now - whether I will allow what happened last night to make me slip or fall, c"v. It would be just like the y"ch to try to make me feel guilty for something that was not a deliberate Aveira, with the goal to get me to do Aveiros on purpose. To help avoid going that route, I went to Mikvah this morning, and said the Tikun Klali this afternoon.

Continued Hatzlacha to everyone!

Boruch Hashem, I am up to 57 days.

As our good friend Bardichev says, I'm "humble and happy."
