

Noora BAmaram's Journey and Journal

Shalom Alleichem to all my friends on this holy forum,

Today is with the help of Hashem day 61 on my sobriety journey.

I choose the name Noraah BAmram based on the famous story at the end of Kidushin where Reb Amram Chasida was faced with the battle we are all battling on this site. when he was halfway up the ladder to sin he shouted out "FIRE IN THE HOUSE OF AMRAM - "FIRE IN THE HOUSE OF AMRAM - I too scream out "fire in the house of Amram" "fire in the house of Amram" and all the sages came running to save him>

I hope and pray that thru my continued posting on the forum and being on the 90 day chart, somehow the fires of the YH that is waging inside me will be also be extinguished.

The chizuk and understanding that I received from all the members on this forum since I found this site about 2 months ago is absolutely indescribable and immeasurable.

Thank u to each and everyone of you- starting of course with our beloved webmaster, affectionately known around here as "Rabienu Guard" for opening up and sharing your own struggles, tips and suggestions and thereby giving me such tremendous chizuk.

I'm not the best typist in the world but i will try to keep posting as time allows.

NB

Thank you for posting so simple. I've got a year clean. It's so easy to think I've got it solved. You've given me a lot to think about.

I'll daven for you at Shmah Koleinu.

Hello Noorah,

I'm pretty new here, came on board since you last posted this spring. But you are one of those whose posts inspired me so much as I started my own path to recovery. Even your name, and the story it represents, are a source of immense chizuk to me, as I am challenged with temptation literally everywhere. (I even considered using it as my screen name, until i saw that it was already claimed).

I wish you much hatzlacha as you continue your journey forward, and may this one last until 120 (years).

KOMT!!

Gevura!

P.S. I found the perfect truck for you ;D
