

fresh start

---

I was on the list before under a different name and I decided to change it. Previously I was "David". I am nearing the end of my 4th day clean. Today was difficult and challenging. Thanks to your help, I have had a filter (K9) on my computer since Thursday afternoon. That has been helpful. Anyway, happy to be on this journey of sobriety. I'm not so sure how much to disclose about myself and what to write on these forums. I hope to make use of them, though. I have needed, do need and will need help and support.

Not necessarily, but you still could be out of your mind.

went to a group with other ssa guys last night.

was good for me to put myself out there.

it's a group that i've been at before,

just my first time in a while.

i got to share a little about what's going on with me,

listen to others share about themselves,

was good.

still feeling out of sorts,

working on focusing on the now,

today, this hour, these few minutes.

accepting myself where i'm at now.

i must say that now that my head is clearing a little bit,

i'm aware that i'm further along than i was a year ago,

even a few months ago.

despite the falling, i feel the growth.

that's good and it's due a lot to the support i get here.

Happy to hearthat. I often have trouble focusing on today, too. I worry about what tomorrow will bring, plan for the future, instead of living the best I can in the here and now, and enjoying it!

When buying a stock always check the YTD. Seems like yours is on the + side

Sorry for not explaining. YTD stands for Year To Date. It shows where you are in reference to one thing. Where you were on this same day 1 year ago.
