

Huge leap in rochniyos.

Posted by Tefillahleani - 28 Nov 2010 19:39

Hello everyone,

Where else to post my accomplishments if not here at GYE and this forum!

Yesterday, I managed a specific level of kedusha that I haven't been able to achieve for almost 25 years.

Since I became aware of GYE and started my journey towards more kedusha, I have been making strides to improve my relationship with my wife. I developed a plan of action taking information from the tzadikim here at GYE (including the 90 Day Chart and the chizuk emails). I also had benefit in reading "Garden Of Peace" which helped me understand how a "real" man needs to behave.

I am still in the experimental stage and it is too early to tell if I am successful. However, I am hopeful and will continue to daven for hashems help.

Thank you all and good luck on your own journeys.

i found that making shalom a priority allows everything else to fall into place.

and it only gets better and better!

its too bad that holly wood has messed up family life so much - by giving us false expectations and a fasle sense of reality
