

Been there done that... not really

Posted by geshertzarmeod - 14 Feb 2011 09:48

I've started the teshuva process before, but never with the support of others. Even if no one is reading this, just the idea that I can post this somewhere is meaningful. One day at a time. So this is day 1. :-\

I think I need to check the attitude handbook.

Hey Gesh, what about the time it took for the joke to get to you, did you figure out how he

[oops, methinks it's getting kinda the opposite of mushy here]

This thread has been asleep for a while but I figured that Elul was a good time to bring it back to life.

A kabbalah, bli neder, that I plan to stay away from non-jewish news and sports sites at least for Elul and Aseres Y'mei teshuva.

I have a YH for news from the states, especially presidential elections ( I know its stupid, but what can i do) and unfortunately it brought me back into the YH for sports.

needless to say the pics that are found there are not healthy

but that isnt the real issue

it's just the waste of time that i believe translates into trouble in many ways

Baruch Hashem nothing has happened and Im in a good place

but i recently revisited the gemara in brachos

????? ????? ??? ??? ??? ?? ??? ???

its seems to me that instead of laying low and trying to avoid confrontations

we need to be active in fighting him

I dont mean going to the beach and taking him on directly

but I think that taking active steps towards keeping him on the defensive instead of me is in order.

So this is my effort, my korban for this elul / yomim noraim

btw everything is blocked by my filter except for google news

which i am allowing myself to just see headlines

to be aware of whats going on, but not clicking on any of the links.

it demands a little will power

Hashem help me withstand this please.

I dont really have a thread to post on anymore

as mine died of old age

Alive and kicking!

;D [any time]
