

The Shlichim of GYE

Posted by the.guard - 26 Jan 2010 19:01

So for the first year or two, I was doing GYE work by myself. But as we grew, it became necessary to start spreading out the work. Besides for not being able to handle it all any more, more and more people were enthusiastic about what we were doing and wanted to help out.

Below is a partial list of some of the GYE Shlichim and the tasks that they undertook to help us with. (I say "partial" because there are certain undertakings that need to stay anonymous and cannot be revealed here). Please let me know if I missed anyone...

If you see a task below that you feel you can help with and want to undertake to be part of, let me know and I will bl'n add your name to the list!

And of-course, if you can think of any other tasks not mentioned below that you feel you can help with, please let me know!

GYE is no longer only "my project". B"H it has grown and become "Klal Yisrael's Project"! :D

umm yeh, about that..... :-X (was that b4 or after this post, i forget when I got the hissorerus to finnaly say that)

I didn't mean feed her to the crocks, I meant swinging it like a jumprope, on our side of this mechitza. And I fugured that GUARD must also have a childish side to him (other than getteing the last word), and he can't jump and swing the rope at the same time!!! unless.....

She may be annoying, but I never suggested we make 7up swing from the end of a rope! Now, on the other hand Guard.....

Me3, do I get to choose at least? I've always thought the best way to die would be like that Hershy's employer who drowned in a big vat of chocolate.

IMT25 Did you ever hear the joke about the chassidish guy reading the anti-semetic newspaper. He was depressed, and wanted to have th ehanaah of hearing how the jews controll the world banks, and run the world! Ok if you didn't then I killed it 4 you.

But there aren't so many happy announcements so we gotta have our fun making them up.

heryee Heryea read all about it:

GUARD discovers brocken toilet seat in EL-AL bathroom. Sources close to the family say that he plans to use the $100million winnigs from the lawsuit, to support his world renown website GYE. In an AP article released last tuesday, the report described GYE as a uniqe 12 step program for SA, which encourages patients to drown their addiction at their local branch of the GYE Tavern. Bards, a local volenteer, who pours a shot of woddford to anyone walking through the door (unless they provide proof that they are the designated driver), declined to comment but was kind enough to offer our reporters a bottle for the way home.

I dont care how Chazak he is; this "harvesting" word makes me think of organs each time I read it.

We may be SA but even we have limits!

New term needed immediately.

Who's the rewrite shaliach??

Thank you!

I wrote the same thing to the Guard and got that description removed.

However, later I saw that that is the exact techincal term for this!!!

There are actually programs that are called "Email Harvesters". Type that into Google!

BTW "Chazak" is a verb, not a noun. It means "strengthen yourself". Or maybe in the posuk it means "He will strengthen your heart". I should look it up. But I do not mean it as a description of myself.
