

TEST OUR NEW FORUM

Posted by the.guard - 02 Jul 2012 14:51

BIG NEWS: We hope to launch a new forum system in the coming days at www.guardyoureyes.com/forum/index

Besides being more advanced than this one, the main benefit is that people signing up to our website as members will automatically be able to use the forum without having to sign up in a separate place. (We are looking to unify everything under one sign-up, including the 90-day chart, chizuk e-mails, etc.)

Before we launch, I'd like to ask some guys here to test it out and write to each other back and forth, and test the new PM system as well... Keep in mind that the current posts are from a long time ago, it is not up to date.

Keep in mind as well, that whatever you post there will be lost when we make the final migration from SMF to the new forum.

Only members of the website can post on the forum, so if you want to test it and haven't yet signed up, sign up here: www.guardyoureyes.com/register

Please post your comments, bugs, etc... below in this thread...

Thank you!

what's karma?

in the haggada you have four sons

In babba karma you have the four fathers...

I've often wonderd why our three Avos are referred to as our four-fathers.

Now I realize thay may be referring to our four-fathers from babba karma.

You haven't said it yet but you sure will!

We'll all have a few years' sobriety by then, be'ezras Hashem.

AMEN!!!!

I agree with removing the username and only having the profile name appear

I believe that I was erroneously subscribed to a topic that i responded to without subscribing.

Its not a complaint BB, just an alert to the powers that be to check out the subscribing system.

Hi guard, I'm operating from my phone and its hard to test the new forum from here but I would like it if in the new forum the pming would keep both sides of the conversation so you know who's responding to what and you don't have to always quote the other person. Also the typing can we have automatically capitalizing "i's"that would be nice

When creating a post, the buttons on bottom show up as "P" and "C"

It would be clearer for a first-time poster if these were spelled out, although the balloons do pop up when moused over.

Can you explain what you mean by this, or send a screen shot to eyes.guard@gmail.com? I don't see this problem

Reb Guard,

I wanted to mention one more concern about the new forum.

The hierarchy of titles based on number of posts can mislead a newcomer.

Anyone with a certain number of posts will have the title "expert boarder" under his name.

While I understand it's just cute and a motivator to keep posting, on a forum such as this perhaps the title "expert" shouldn't be so freely applied.

Maybe someone one who doesn't post at all and just looks around could be called a Surf-boarder :D

HOLD ON A SECOND!

I WON'T BE ABLE TO REFERENCE AND QUOTE OLD STUFF ANYMORE, WHAT'S THE POINT IN A FORUM THEN?
