

New "Trustworthy" Group - to help keep the forum clean

Posted by the.guard - 20 Dec 2008 20:22

In order to help keep this forum clean of inappropriate posts, I created a new "Group" of members called "Trustworthy" that will have the power to delete posts.

I added the following members to the group. Let me know if you want to be added. (We only accept trustworthy people :-)

Currently the group has 5 members:

- 1) Ano-nymous
- 2) Someone
- 3) Eme
- 4) Wewillnotbeforsaken
- 5) Chazak

If any of you see a post that has inappropriate posts, such as ads for porn or even viagra, watches, free mortgages - WHATEVER, etc.... Just open the post and press "Remove" on the top right of the post.

Thank you for helping us keep the forum clean!
