

New feature on the forum - Your Clean Streak

Posted by the.guard - 08 Sep 2014 19:48

If you are on the 90-Day Chart, your current clean streak will now display (by default) under your name on the forum. This helps encourage you and adds a level of accountability - since you

If you do not want your current streak to display, go to your name on the 90-Day chart and select "Don't display streak on forum". See attached image.

You can toggle it to "Display" or "Don't Display" any time you want.

know that all your forum friends will see it

Hatzlacha!
