

Apology - and Request Please

Posted by the.guard - 15 Jan 2010 13:26

I want to apologize to everyone for my lack of posting on the forum recently. As GYE grows, so do my responsibilities. I am busier than ever and rarely get to read personal threads on the forum any more. Please send me "HU" ("Heads Up") alerts, together with a link, whenever you feel there is something I should respond to - or deal with - on the forum. Also, please send me by e-mail any ACE's (Another Chizuk E-mail), which are inspiring pieces that people write on the forum that you feel might be worthy of being in a Chizuk e-mail.

The 5 announcements in Chizuk e-mail #683 are just an example of the many things I am busy with currently. And there are many more, such as speaking to important people about our work, advertising, web-development, etc... and of course the two daily chizuk e-mails, rain or shine. I am also trying so hard to update the handbook and release a newer version, but I can't even find a half-hour to work on it... (Hashem, please help me keep this all up and prioritize my time correctly!)

I have tens of e-mails and PMs that I haven't even gotten a chance to respond to recently. It hurts me, but one day when we have more funding we will hire others to work with us and I won't be so overwhelmed. Again, I sincerely apologize for my recent lack of participation on the forum.

If anyone knows of any contacts that you might be able to make for us with wealthy philanthropists who would understand the vital importance of what we're doing - to help us grow and expand our work for the almost "insatiable" demand that is coming in, your zechus would be immeasurable. I can't do this all alone. There's nothing like GYE in Klal Yisrael today, and the need is unfortunately HUGE. I dream of opening a center and hiring many people to work along with me in web-development, PR, Advertising, Publishing handbooks, books and pamphlets, hot-line networks 24 hours a day, more phone conferences, etc. etc. and etc.

G-d willing.

But we need your help. PLEASE. If any relatives of yours, or friends, are well-off and understand the value of this work, we can send you by e-mail a presentation to print out and show them, and we'd also be happy to talk to them in person on the phone. Help us make

Thank you, precious Yidden, and Good Shabbos.

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please

Posted by Ineedhelp!! - 17 Jan 2010 17:43

guardureyes wrote on 17 Jan 2010 17:39:

Why not have someone make a seperate WEBSITE for non-addicts. It seems that we are going to make everyone a private forum except for the people that really need it. I dont think a non addict needs a forum in the first place anyway. Non addicts should not be on this website Bichlal. This website is a support group for addicts and when we start mixing the two, then the website may turn to the worse for the people that really need it, the addicts

Take it easy, Yiddle. Everything will be fine. We'll make sure to consult with you before doing

Ya I am sorry Guard for coming off too strong there. I dont know why I STILL feel I should have to control everything. If there's one thing I should learn from my addiction is that our needs to control everything in life is what truly brings us to our restlessness, irritability, and discontent.

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please

Posted by shemirateinayim - 26 Jan 2010 05:26

I know everyone is having fun here, with the fiscal forecast and all, but I really do think that GUARD will be a drivin gfrove in the next few years. You see, all it takes is one gevir to bankroll him, and together with the creativity and ingenuity of the members here, GYE will have it's pamphlets in every yeshiva, and a handbook on every mussar shelf. True they will have to be re-written to adress all the different stages of addicton, and all the different sorts, but we can worry about that later.

This is the nissayon of our dor, our dor is a VAAD LEZNUS!!!! and GUARD is leading the rebellion against the entire entertainment industry. Hey mybe somone can launch a class-action lawsuit against the entertainment industry, and make them fund this site as a cure.

Seriously speaking now, can someone with a good filter, search for any from of gov. funding? There is always plenty of free money available for charitable causes, and probably for this also. We are a corporation, and soon will BH be a non-profit one.

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by the.guard - 26 Jan 2010 14:11

Thanks, SA.

As soon as we are non-profit, I will look into applying for a government grant in the U.S. be"h... I have discussed this in the past with Phillip Rosenthal...

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by UTS - 28 Jan 2010 06:34

guardureyes wrote on 16 Jan 2010 18:28:

We need to raise at least 2 million dollars for the dreams that I have.

Is this the real number?

Let's see....

OK.

BTW, now that we/you have official haskomos to show people, it should be easier be"H. No? I hope so.

=====

Well, 2 million is just a rough estimate

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by UTS - 28 Jan 2010 06:37

guardureyes wrote on 17 Jan 2010 17:39:

Why not have someone make a seperate WEBSITE for non-addicts. It seems that we are going to make everyone a private forum except for the people that really need it. I dont think a non addict needs a forum in the first place anyway. Non addicts should not be on this website Bichlal. This website is a support group for addicts and when we start mixing the two, then the website may turn to the worse for the people that really need it, the addicts

Take it easy, Yiddle. Everything will be fine. We'll make sure to consult with you before doing Guard, you have such a warm sense of humor. :) It's so heartwarming. I'm serious.

=====
=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please

Posted by Steve - 28 Jan 2010 21:42
any major changes, ok?

Yiddle, I feel sorry for the non-addicts, they'll miss out on so much...

We should budget for an active committe to turn peolpe into addicts just so they can join our group and get help. Maybe couple it with the fundraising dept by targeting children of millionaires. (Of course Tatty will fund his own son's therapy. Otherwise the whole Olam might hear how much his kid resents him.)

Reb G., you've got my offer to help sitting in your in tray, probably burried under all those unread circulars.

=====
=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please

Posted by kutan - 04 Feb 2010 15:05

There SHOULD be a web site for non addicts.

=====
=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by the.guard - 04 Feb 2010 15:54

Well, I've sent out over 330 Shmiras Ainayim Chizuk e-mails, and not one of them mentions

=====
=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by me - 04 Feb 2010 16:12

OK.

BTW, now that we/you have official askomom to show people, it should be easier be"H. No? I hope so.

"Addiction"... The material in that can be used for starters

I have alot of experience with these things. Askomom are great....but not tooooo many people really care about them anymore. Not that we would throw them out c"v. They do legitimize. BUT as far as getting big $$$$$, we need to get a list of many of the large frum g'virim, and then.....we need to watch them closely. See which one's look like they haven't slept in a few days. Which one's are really nervous, and on edge. (just get a look at their eyes, and if we can see that they are red, blood shot, and bulging... :o even a little...we found a good candidate. These are the one's that we need to find, and make sure we email them, (we can do undercover (my specialty) get their private email addresses, send to their office, and where, and what ever, and through this we we lead them to GYE. As time goes on, we advt how money can't buy everything etc. etc, and then we explain BUT, if one usese their $ to support GYE, and thereby help others rectify this terrible chet, then of course the rich person WILL be able to buy his way to heaven....so to speak.

=====
=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please

Posted by Kedusha - 04 Feb 2010 16:29

me wrote on 04 Feb 2010 16:12:

I have alot of experience with these things. Haskomos are great....but not tooooo many people really care about them anymore.

, but the Rosh Yeshiva's letter is not your ordinary, run of the mill, Haskama. It's nothing short of groundbreaking. Here's why: It is probably the first letter by someone of the Rosh Yeshiva's stature to fully acknowledge the scope of the problem (even kollel members and Rabbis!) and the extent of the problem (widespread, lives ruined, marriages wrecked), and to further acknowledge that we're dealing with an addiction/illness, not with people who are evil and simply need to exercise better self control. Furthermore, the letter offers a real solution, other than completely banning the Internet, something that would do little (if anything) to help an addict. I'm certain that the letter is a first in Klal Yisrael. Anyone who

=====

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please

Posted by me - 04 Feb 2010 17:16

I'm a bit Nogeiah b'Davar , but the Rosh Yeshiva's letter is not your ordinary, run of the mill, Haskama. It's nothing short of groundbreaking. Here's why:

I'm a bit Nogeiah b'Davar

As I said Kedusha, this Haskama is great.....I was just referring not to the writer of the askama, but rather how much people today pay attention to them. But, for sure.....to get more, and more as possible.

I personally managed to get for myself some VERY large world reknown askamos for a different pupose. I am only commenting on how much the people pay attention to them. Just my own experiences.

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by the.guard - 04 Feb 2010 18:29

It depends what it's for... A Askama to help a person marry off his children - even from the gadol hador, get's little attention. A Askama that addresses a subject everyone's been

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by Kedusha - 04 Feb 2010 18:30

me wrote on 04 Feb 2010 17:16:

brushing under the rug forever. I think will get some MAJOR attention! I'm a bit Nogetan's Dava, but the Rosh Yeshiva's letter is not your ordinary, run of the mill, Askama. It's nothing short of groundbreaking. Here's why:

As I said Kedusha, this Askama is great.....I was just referring not to the writer of the askama, but rather how much people today pay attention to them. But, for sure.....to get more, and more as possible.

I personally managed to get for myself some VERY large world reknown askamos for a different pupose. I am only commenting on how much the people pay attention to them. Just my own experiences.

I'm with Guard. This particular Haskama is hard to ignore, based on who wrote it, the nature of the subject matter, and the strong language used.

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by me - 04 Feb 2010 18:48

A Haskama that addresses a subject everyone's been brushing under the rug forever, I think will get some MAJOR attention!

One hundred percent! The Gadol who gives the Haskoma on the matzav in Kalal Yisroel is the most important thing because HE PERSONALLY gives his own personal account on how many Yidden are coming to him with tradgic stories. This is the most important point....."rather than having people brush the subject under the rug".

AS far a GYE which is an oasis for these people, and their families, it's kind of like asking for a Haskama for an irgun that gives out tzdakah to poor families for Shabbos. Do they really need an askama to give out free chessed? I do agree that the Haskama such a R. Twerski being an expert with addictions is the most important concerning this aspect, i.e. that the direction of GYE is fit for this type of addiction.

I guess in the end.... I agree with everything! :D

=====

Re: Apology - and Request Please
Posted by Kedusha - 04 Feb 2010 19:32

me wrote on 04 Feb 2010 18:48:

I do agree that the Haskama such a R. Twerski being an expert with addictions is the most important concerning this aspect, i.e. that the direction of GYE is fit for this type of addiction.

For Rabbi Twerski to consider this an addiction (as opposed to a Chisaron in Frumkeit) is not such a Chiddush, because he is an expert in the field of addictions. For a Gadol b'Yisrael (who has no such training) to view it that way is a major breakthrough.

=====

=====