

MISHPACHA IS ON-BOARD!

Posted by the.guard - 09 Feb 2010 18:39

I just received word that the English Mishpacha will be featuring an article this week about Dr. Phillip Rosenthal, and they mention our network in the article! (That's a readership of 500,000)

I have already seen the article, but at Phillip's request, I cannot post it. After all, we want you all to go and BUY the Mishpacha Magazine this Thursday/Fri - 26 Shvat 5770!

Our network is not mentioned at length, but it is mentioned at a critical part of the article. And although they got some info wrong about what exactly it is that we do, it will still hopefully bring hundreds to "check us out"!! :D

Lt. Einayim reporting for duty (I think the rank has a cool twang to it)

Wait? does this mean that we're famous???? Then I gotta go delete all my identifying posts!
Seriously speaking, we gotta clean this place up B4 the big day.

No more posts about the 'yet to be forgotten' erra of pre-mechitza days. No more open-ended threads on the topic, or subject matter, of stupidity (in the break free area). And no-more boring avatars. We are celebrities of the jewish world!!! GUARD how about a new streimel, this one sorta blocks your holy eyes (unless that's how you keep them holy).

OHMY Goooosh omagosh omygosh omygosh.....eiiiiiiihhhhhhhhhhhhhh

'calm down, deep breaths, thing of calming things. Roses, feilds of grass, cars driving by the highway,worldwide recognition. Publicity, fame, Kavod" ok mybe this exersize is going the wrong way?

bored

I just wrote some thing so cynical

And I erased it by oops

So I guess I will be sweet

The internet is a series of computers connected by high speed modems(like phones) and people share information,present businesses, education, and shtussim, or downright perverse abominal information

Ohh what's a computer

Yes its a machine used for data entry organize many tasks

Write electronic mail and stuff

Its a common machine many people use aT school office and home

Even if you live in kiryat sefer you probably saw one somewhere

I don't know what you mean. I don't think I ever saw one...

BTW, Phillip told me he was interviewed by HaModia as well, and he talked about GYE and they said they'd put it in!! (Keep your eyes open for the article in the coming weeks!)

Ok guard

Didn't I tell u there will be a day they will beg for an interview

Oh here is what a computer is

It looks like the key board that the ku-pai in the super duper shefa super mehadrin in kiryat sefer uses to calculate how many lebens,krembos,bissli,bagets,and shakshooka mix a shopper purchases

It also can acces each customers account (an account is a cheshbon)

Also computers are the little peplephones the zaka or hatzalah or the standard issue askan types use in kiryat sefer to keep in touch with one another or to ead electronic mail or read some chaddashot that was left out of the morning paper

Computers can also be found in doctors offices

And in many schools

Most schools demand that high school girls bring in their reports printed from a computer

But no-one has one but they need to bring it in typed

But I still don't get what the big glowing thing is.

(We need to add a "Laugh of the Day" to our daily e-mails...)

I've noticed lately, that on these forums there is a big push on getting GYE exposure from the "yeshivshe" media and Rabonim (lehavdil). I acknowledge that this is very important, however is there an emphasis to publicize GYE to the more modern circles as well, where these problems must exist as well?

Dear Stuart,

The timing of your question is unreal!
