

Good location when calling in?

Posted by Moshe eyes - 23 Feb 2013 01:55

Hi guys

Where is a good place to go during work to make the call for the phone conference?

It needs to be quite and private but a place where u can talk. Any suggestions?

I'm thinking a local park is my best bet

if you have a car you can sit there and talk without being interrupted (weather conditions permitting)
