

1800 Days!

Posted by GratefulTzvi - 12 Dec 2018 20:50

Just wanted to express my gratitude to Hashem, and to my program fellows, my family and friends for being patient with me, through my journey so far. From a hopeless lower bottom addict, with a very pronounced same sex lust template, I have emerged as a productive, functional, growing, grateful, recovering sexaholic. My life has meaning, I have so many wonderful connections that span the globe, My family life is better. My prayer life is deeper. I pinch myself everyday. Is this a dream? The message I want to share with all of you is "THERE IS HOPE!".
